

Commission Sales Opportunity — Automotive & Industrial Consumables

Are you an independent sales rep looking to expand your line card with something that's easy to sell, easy to support, and built for repeat revenue? If so, this is one of those rare "right place, right time" opportunities.

We're launching a fresh new product line into the North American automotive and industrial markets, and we're looking for motivated commission-based sales professionals to take the lead.

Why Reps Love This Product Line

New, untapped market entry You'll be bringing a fresh, innovative brand into a massive industry that's always hungry for high-quality consumables.

Cutting-edge marketing tools

From polished digital media to dealer-friendly assets, we give you everything you need to walk in confidently and win business.

Attractive packaging + strong after-sales support

Customers love the look, and you'll love the support — we stand behind every product so your reputation stays solid.

Perfect add-on to existing product lines

If you already call on automotive, industrial, fleet, or maintenance accounts, this integrates seamlessly into your current offerings.

Lucrative compensation plan

High commission rates with strong earning potential — ideal for reps who enjoy building their own book of business.

Paid on repeat orders

You don't just get paid once. You earn commissions on every follow-up order your accounts place. Look after your customers and enjoy the subsequent ongoing sales commissions.

Consumable product = guaranteed replenishment sales

As customers use up the product, they reorder. You build a portfolio of accounts that generates ongoing income.

Who This Is Perfect For Independent reps already calling on automotive or industrial customers

- a) Manufacturer reps looking for a complementary consumable line
- b) Reps who like high-return, low-hassle products
- (c Reps who value recurring commission streams

Interested? Let's Talk.

If you want a product line with real traction, real support, and real long-term earning potential, we'd love to connect. Send a quick message with your location and experience, and we'll set up a short call.